

ANGLŲ KALBA

Lentele pildo vertintojai

Taškų suma

1. Read the following extracts from newspapers. Something is wrong with five of them. Put a cross (X) by the five odd extracts in the boxes provided. (5 points)

1. Plans are being made to build a new bridge over the River Thames about ten miles south of Abingdon.
2. Over the last three miles the two athletes ran shoulder to shoulder, with Haddon always a yard in front of Peres.
3. A man is now recovering after the fatal crash in Bilton Road.
4. Sixteen prisoners were injured when they attempted to escape over the wall of Purley prison yesterday.
5. Civil servants plan to go on strike in June.
6. Wanted: man to wash dishes and two waitresses.
7. A new scheme may reduce pollution from power stations if the present tests are successful, the government announced today.
8. Do not give the baby a dirty feeding-bottle. When the baby has finished its bottle, put it in a saucepan of water and boil it.
9. Ken Hickson scored the winning goal of Everton in their match against Arsenal in the semi-finals last night.
10. The other driver said that Mr. Petra smelled of wine. So did a policeman.
11. Alan Fletcher was elected chairman. Members of the club said they could not find a better man.

Points

--	--

2. Use the word which best fits each space. (10 points)

When giraffes are attacked (1) _____ an enemy such as a lion, they kick out with their feet (2) _____ order to injure the other animal seriously. But when they fight amongst themselves, they do (3) _____ kick, they neck. Two fighting males stand next to (4) _____ other. They begin (5) _____ stretching their necks as high as they can to frighten each other. As neither giraffe is frightened, one usually bends its neck and swings it back (6) _____ that the short horns on his head hit the enemy. The (7) _____ giraffe does the same. (8) _____ the fight gets more violent, the two animals move their front legs outwards (9) _____ as not to fall over. It would be quite easy for them to kick each other but they never do this, because it is (10) _____ the rules.

Points

--	--

3. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb given in bold and use the appropriate word made of the word given in bold. Mind the word order. (10 points)

A Generous Talent

Children, and not only (1. child) _____, associate the name of R. Stevenson with one (2. to excite) _____ adventure story, "Treasure Island". However, the author (3. to write) _____ many other (4. extreme) _____ interesting novels, stories, brilliant poems, and (5. critic) _____ articles.

"Treasure Island" was indeed (6. stand) _____, that aroused a (7. life) _____ response and has great success among his contemporaries. It (8. to read) _____ with equal interest in our days as well. Where (9. to lie) _____ its force of (10. attract) _____ ?

Points

--	--

4. Write the second sentence similar to the first sentence, using the word given. (5 points)

1. "When are you leaving for your camping trip?" Ben asked them.

they

Ben asked _____ for their camping trip.

2. Nick brushed his teeth and went to bed.

after

Nick went to bed _____ his teeth.

3. There were a lot of cars on the road to my mother's.

traffic

There _____ on the road to my mother's.

4. You can't leave the table if you don't eat all your vegetables.

unless

You can't leave the table _____ vegetables.

5. My grandfather is a very experienced driver, he learned to drive and got his driving licence when he was 18.

since

My grandfather _____ was 18.

Points

--	--

Total

--	--